RECORD BROKEN.

The Ohio River at Wheeling Lower Than ever Before.

SEVEN AND ONE-QUARTER INCHES

THE STAGE THAT WAS RECORDED YESTERDAY MORNING, AND STILL THERE IS NO HOPE FOR A RISE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. THE EARTH SO PARCHED THAT IT WILL TAKE A GREAT QUANTITY OF RAIN TO HAVE AN EFFECT ON THE RIVERS.

The river marks yesterday morning showed seven and one-quarter inches, which on the face of the returns breaks the record for low water at this port, the lowest previous performance of the river in hunting bottom being eight inches, which was reached last fall.

However, it is possible the record is not yet broken, for the stage recorded yesterday was arrived at through measurements taken by City Engineer A. L. White, who worked down from the bottom of the stone gage with a spirit level, and got his result through the discovery that the stones of the gage near the bottom had become slightly depressed. As told in the proceedings of council in another column, this depression amounted to several inches, so that the eight inches recorded last fall was probably a lower stage of water in reality than the seven and one-quarter inches arrived at yesterday morning.

At any rate the river is phenomenally low, so low, in fact, that even the little Big Sandy packet Fair Play, which had been running in the Wheeling and Clarksburg trade has been compelled to go to the bank. Captain Thomas laid her up at Clarksburg.

Riversmen are hoping that the rains reported early in the week would be heavy and general enough to create a considerable rise at headwaters, but it is now known that the precipitation did not amount to much and hardly a drop reached the rivers, the earth's parched bosom absorbing all of it.

THE CONTRACTS LET.

McLean, of Bellaire, to Erect the Laughlin Mill Foundations.

Contracts are being let for the new tin plate works to be erected by the Laughlin Nail Company, at Martin's Ferry, which will give employment to 350 additional persons, and it is the intention to build the mill as soon as possible.

The contract for the foundation was let yesterday, and William McLean, of Bellaire, gets the job. He has the contract for the foundation, which will be of stone, and he is to furnish the stone and do the work. He gave bond yesterday afternoon for the fulfillment of his part of the contract, and he will begin work as soon as possible.

The work of removing the three houses to make room for the new works will be finished in a few days, and work will be commenced on the foundation as soon as everything can be gotten in readiness. No time will be lost in the construction of the big mill unless on account of bad weather or something unforeseen, the company being anxious to make haste in every way, consistent with good, satisfactory work. The mill, as recently stated in the Intelligencer, will be built on ground to the south of the present tin plate works, and fronting on Main street, for which all of the necessary real estate has been acquired, including portions of two or three streets and alleys, the city of Martin's Ferry making certain concessions to encourage the construction of the new works. The city also granted right of way to the railroads for additional switches to the new establishment, which will employ so many additional hands, and Martin's Ferry will be greatly benefited thereby. Mr. McLean, the contractor for the stone foundation, also secured the contract for the foundation for the new Presbyterian church at Martin's Ferry.

IT IS POSTPONED.

The Eaton Habeas Corpus Application Postponed Until Next Month.

Yesterday at Parkersburg, in the United States court, Judge Jackson heard arguments on an application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of William Eaton, who was convicted of arson in Ohio county and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of years. He was taken to Parkersburg yesterday by Sheriff Richards, of Ohio county, and through his attorney, Col. W. W. Arnett applied for a writ of habeas corpus. He claims that he is illegally imprisoned, and that he can prove an alibi on the night the fire in question occurred.

Yesterday afternoon a hearing was had and Eaton attempted to make good his claims. He was examined by his attorney for Judge Jackson's benefit, and was put through a rigid cross-examination by John A. Howard and F. W. Nesbitt. The matter was finally postponed until the November term of the United States court at Clarksburg. Sheriff Richards brought Eaton back to Wheeling last night, and he was lodged in the county jail. Messrs. Howard, Nesbitt and Arnett also returned to Wheeling last night.

FRED CLINE IS DEAD.

The Well Known Steamboatman Passes Away Last Night.

Last night at 9:45 o'clock at his home, 136 South Front street, Island, occurred the death of Captain J. Fred Cline, a prominent river man in this section of the Ohio valley, and owner of the steamer Lexington, which he commanded. His death was due to cerebral meningitis, primarily caused by a fall he received at the steps leading to his home last Wednesday morning. He never regained consciousness after the unfortunate accident, and his end was peaceful.

Captain Cline was a well known figure from Wheeling to Matamoros, between which points his steamer plied, and there were many expressions of regret over his demise. His parents lived at Matamoros, and a wife and two children, a boy and a girl, survive him. The funeral arrangements are not yet completed. The deceased was a member of Wheeling lodge, No. 114, K. of P., which will have charge of the services, and also of J. T. McGee Company, No. 29, Uniform Rank K of P.

To Cover Your Nakedness

Is one thing; to be properly dressed is quite another.

How can you be satisfied to wear ordinary ready-made clothes or cheap merchant tailored ones, when you buy bearing this label made of the very best materials, by expert custom tailors, after the most fashionable models, at about the same price as the former and a great deal less than the latter? Our profit on Stein-Bloch Clothes is not as large as on other makes. They are better and consequently cost more. But we make more in the end, because we sell so much of it; they need no further advertising to a customer who has once worn them.

Test the truth of our assertions. You risk nothing. Your money back if you want it, proves it.
